

A New Partnership, Infinite Possibilities

CaseWorthy and Exact Change Strategies are excited to announce their new partnership. Exact Change Strategies has joined the CaseWorthy team as a Professional Implementation Partner, allowing both companies to expand their reach and impact. This partnership has incredible potential and is gaining momentum. Here are a few reasons why it was meant to be.

This partnership helps more organizations

By working together, both CaseWorthy and Exact Change can reach more nonprofit organizations and, in turn, help more people who are served by nonprofits nationwide. Exact Change brings an exclusive Performance Management framework that is not tied to any one software system. It offers value and a solid foundation for any system. Their adept team is versed in various platforms and can help any organization thoughtfully plan and build software to match its needs and vision.

By partnering with Exact Change, CaseWorthy demonstrates its ongoing commitment to customers. And so far, customers have been delighted with the services they've received as a result.

Bringing more opportunities to both companies – and customers

As a Professional Implementation Partner for CaseWorthy, Exact Change focuses specifically on building systems customized for each customer. That's an incredibly valuable and much-needed service since social service organizations vary greatly in their size, scope, data analysis, and reporting requirements.

Exact Change has already helped a variety of customers with a range of services – from performance management design that complements the CaseWorthy application to full blown implementation of the system from scratch, to supporting customers in the transition to CaseWorthy from other databases.

By working together, CaseWorthy and Exact Change are creating opportunities for growth, cross training, and enhanced knowledge sharing between their teams.

It's all about ensuring a perfect fit and expanding expertise

Ultimately, this partnership is a perfect fit for everyone involved. Exact Change is a highly qualified and competent partner joining our enthusiastic and customer-oriented CaseWorthy family. Each company leverages its extensive experience for a common purpose, so that organizations have access to the very best performance management systems and data-driven solutions.
